

Medical Marijuana Owner Pleads Guilty Conspiracy Charge

By Taryn - Nov 24, 2015

WEST HOLLYWOOD—On Monday, November 23, former medical marijuana owner plead guilty to charges of conspiracy in fed

Andrew Harrison Kramer, 41, pleaded guilty on the charge of conspiracy to distribute 1,000 kilograms of marijuana. Kramer, a accused of shipping pot to South Carolina and other areas for hundreds of thousands of dollars. He has been tied to a total c

Kramer's guilty plea came with a deal that would make it so that prosecutors would not ask for more than 16 years to be ser relation to another crime, noted Assistant U.S. Attorney Mark Childs.

According to West Hollywood Patch.com, Kramer was convicted in 2014 of attempting to burn down the home of a rival. Krar conspiracy each to commit home invasion robbery, stalking, and attempting to commit arson. He also pleaded guilty to three two counts of arson. Kramer faced allegations of using an accelerant in order to commit the arson.

The suspect confessed to hiring people, who ended up attacking his former landlord, George Lanning and his family which included children. The people Kramer hired broke into Lanning's home and assaulted his wife with a metal bar, as well as one of his sons who was a resident on San Vicente Boulevard. The family's Beverly Hills home was set on fire twice between July 2008 and September 2009.

Kramer was sentenced to 25 years in jail and was ordered to pay $1 million in restitution for the arson charges that he admitted. The distribute drug charge will be held on January 25.

Taryn

Need help? Click here.